

CYCLE of SONGS

Key to the songs

- 1 Reality Checkpoint (Parker's Piece)
 How the famous Green got its name
 Composer: Andrea Cockerton Performed by: The Dowsing Sound Collective
- 2 Why We Ride (104 Regent Street)
 Celebrating cycling routes in Cambridge and the oldest bike shop in England Composer: Kirsty Martin with Rowena Whitehead
 Based on Lyrics by Hollie McNish and Inja Performed by: ReSound
- 3 Infinity (Emmanuel College)
 Mathematics at midnight - the genius of John Wallis
 Composer: Peter Gregson
 Performed by: Peter Gregson & The Infinity choir, (especially convened to record this composition)
- 4 Freedom (St John's College) Equiano and Clarkson, the activists who campaigned against the slave trade Composer and Lyrics: Inja Performed by: Inja and Sing! Community Choir with members of Revelation Rock-Gospel Choir
- 5 Unsung Women (Senate House)
 Degrees, detention, and dissatisfaction with the glass ceiling for women Composer: Kirsty Martin Performed by: Women of Note
- 6 Build This House (King's College) Cambridge children sing to celebrate the history of King's College Composer: Michael Berkeley
 Performed by: Cambridge Primary School Singers & the Choristers of King's College
- 7 Hooray for Hobson (St Catharine's College)
 The legacy of Thomas Hobson, the mail carrier and conduit funder who made a fortune Composer: Karen Wimhurst with lyrics written by Dave Cohen
 Performed by: Milton Road Primary School Choir
- 8 Lions Go Walkabout (Fitzwilliam Museum)
 The lions of The Fitzwilliam Museum listen to the world around them and walk the streets Poet: Michael Rosen
- 9 To Seek a Dream (Trumpington Road)
 A farewell to Cambridge inspired by the poet, Xu Zhimo Composer: Alex Cook
 Performed by: Alex Cook, Hannah Brock, and The Chapel Choir of Selwyn College

